

For 20+ years Andrew has been working within professional services firms as a lawyer, law firm COO/CEO, and legal management consultant advising law firms around the Asia Pacific region with respect to finance, marketing and business development, technology, people and culture, and strategy. Andrew is an 'expert' certified management consultant and Australia's first Foundation level accredited change manager. He has presented globally on a wide range of management issues including law firm strategy and execution, and maximising profitability.

Andrew has also had extensive experience in a global insurance business and most recently been the Managing Director of a large wagering business.

Andrew holds a Bachelor of Business (HRM), Bachelor of Laws (Hons), MBA, and Grad Dip Applied Law. He has won Manager of the Year awards in 2012 and 2013 at the Australasian Law Awards and been featured in 'Legal Leaders' of the Australian Legal Business publication. He has a current practising certificate with the NSW Law Society and has completed the Australian Institute Company Directors course.

Andrew has been playing golf for more than 30 years and is an accomplished golfer having had a handicap as low as +4. He has played many years of representative and tournament golf including several seasons of pennant golf in Sydney with Twin Creeks, Ryde Parramatta and Strathfield golf clubs. He is also a former director of the Wagga Wagga Golf Club.